Vivendi holds 26.69% of Gameloft

Vivendi announced today that it now holds 26.69% of the share capital of Gameloft, a French company with internationally-recognized know-how in mobile gaming. This participation represents a total of 22.7 million Gameloft shares acquired on the market for a total amount of 111.6 million euros.

The Group reached the 20% and 25% legal thresholds of the share capital of Gameloft respectively on December 1, 2015 and December 3, 2015.

Vivendi filed today the threshold statements and a declaration of intent to the Autorité des Marchés financiers, the French securities regulator, and published on the AMF website, indicating, among other points, that “these acquisitions were not specifically conceived as a preparatory step for a Gameloft takeover. No decision has been taken at this stage regarding a potential public tender offer on the Gameloft shares. In the course of the coming months, Vivendi intends to favor a constructive approach enabling both parties to consider fruitful cooperation. If such an approach does not lead to a favorable conclusion, Vivendi would not exclude taking control of Gameloft.”

In addition, “Vivendi’s investment in the Gameloft business sector is part of a strategic vision of operational convergence between Vivendi’s content and platforms and the Gameloft productions in the field of video games.”
